

Cory Tiebout, graduated from California University of Sacramento where he received his BA Degree in Marketing. Cory has been a producer at Paul Hanson for over 15+ years specializing in insurance placement for the transportation industry. Cory became a principal shareholder in 1998 and is currently Vice President of Marketing & Agency Development. His responsibilities include retail, broker, and program marketing which include creating, developing, producing, and maintaining both insurance carrier and broker relationships. Additional duties include maintaining and consulting retail production at PHP.